

DELFL-DALFL CERTIFICATION EXAMS

Dernière mise à jour: 15 septembre 2018

FIAF offers official French certification/proficiency exams that are useful for school records, university applications, career requirements, and more.

The most important of these is the DELFL-DALFL series of exams, available for both adults and kids. You can find out all the details concerning these exams on the FIAF webpage.

FIAF offers special classes to prepare for these exams, but you may also prepare by using the special materials available in the FIAF Library. All work books are located in the CAA in the special section “Exam Preparation” (classified as 449/DIP).

Please see the following bibliography of titles available published by French editors for exam preparation, as well as a list of websites which offer examples of test levels, subject questions and training activities. Bonne chance!

DELFL Exams for Adults

DELFL (Diplôme d'Etudes en Langue Française) and DALFL (Diplôme Approfondi de Langue Française) are official qualifications awarded by the French Ministry of Education certifying level of fluency in French. They are useful for school records and college and job applications in French-speaking countries. These certificates are valid for life. DELFL and DALFL consist of six independent certificates that correspond to the levels of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages.

DELF Exams for Kids & Teens

Taking the DELF exams will reward your child's work at school and treat him/her with his/her first certificate of French. They officially attest the level of French of your child to enter a bilingual or French School. It will give your child the opportunity to be well prepared to pass the next levels of DELF through his/her progress at school.

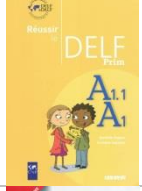

DELF PRIM (ages 8–12)

Diplôme d'Études en Langue Française PRIM is an official diploma awarded by the French Ministry of Education to certify the proficiency in French as a Foreign Language of children ages 8 to 12. Specially drafted for children, DELF Prim is composed of individual certificates and is divided into three levels: DELF Prim A1.1, DELF Prim A1 and DELF Prim A2, corresponding to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

DELF Junior Version (ages 13+)

This is a specially adapted version for juniors/teenagers of the DELF diplomas. DELF (Diplôme d'Études en Langue Française) is an official qualification awarded by the French Ministry of Education to certify the competency of candidates from outside France in the French language. These diplomas are valid for life. DELF is composed of four independent diplomas that correspond to the levels of the CEFR (Common European Framework of reference for Languages). The DELF Junior version is also open to all young French citizens who reside in any non-francophone country and who are schooled in local institutions.
