

Scholarships in France

last update : September 15, 2018

Is your dream to study in France or another francophone country but you're not quite sure on how to finance the trip? Here are resources both in the Library collection and on the Web to help you find scholarships, grants and housing assistance during your studies.

<http://usa.campusfrance.org/>

Resource of the French Embassy for study in France.

Resources on the Web:

▪ Ministère de l'Enseignement Supérieur et de la Recherche

<http://www.enseignementsup-recherche.gouv.fr/cid20712/les-bourses-sur-criteres-sociaux-et-aides-complementaires.html>

The Minister of Higher Education in France lists several different resources on need-based and merit-based scholarships for undergraduate, graduate and doctoral students.

▪ Centre Régional des Œuvres Universitaires et Scolaires Paris <http://www.crous-paris.fr> Each major city in France has its own CROUS. Contact your region's CROUS to get more information on scholarship opportunities in your area. The Paris site has general information on steps towards acquiring a scholarship in France

▪ UNESCO

<http://www.unesco.org/education/studyingabroad/networking/fellowship.shtml>

The United Nations Education, Scientific and Cultural Organization's site has information about funding from UNESCO as well as links to several other grant possibilities.

▪ Fondation de France <https://www.fondationdefrance.org/fr/guide-des-bourses> helps to fund ages 18 to 30 in creating and carrying through a project related to arts, science, social sciences and a variety of other domains.

▪ IIEPassport <http://www.studyabroadfunding.org/>

Undergraduate to Post-Doctorate funding including the Phi Beta Kappa Walter J. Jensen Fellowship, the Rotary World Peace Fellowship and the Embassy of France Teaching Assistantship Program.

▪ Fulbright Scholarships <http://us.fulbrightonline.org/>

Fulbright Scholarship is funded by the U.S. Department of State in order to foster a multicultural understanding. There are grants for study and research as well as a teaching assistantship program.

Centres Internationaux Francophones des Lions Clubs de France <http://www.amicif.fr>

Offers a free 3-week stay during the summer in one of their affiliated schools in France for students 18-35. (only the cost of air fare is undertaken by the student) Must already have a good level of French. Applications start in January.

295, rue Saint-Jacques 75005 Paris France

Tél: (+33)1.46.34.14.10 Fax: (+33)1.46.33.92.41

▪ Goabroad.com <https://www.goabroad.com/>

Offers links to Scholarships, grants, and fellowships for a variety of levels of study and subject areas.

▪ Campus France <https://www.usa.campusfrance.org/>

Offers two types of scholarships. One is based upon organizations that promote a more international community and encourage foreign students to study in France.

International Education Financial Aid <https://www.ief.org/>

Search engine for a variety of scholarships as well as student resources.

Subject-Specific funding

▪ French Embassy Office of Science and Technology <http://www.france-science.org/-Cooperation-and-exchanges>

▪ Here you will find a list of scholarship opportunities and grants for students and researchers in various scientific domains. This includes the Chateaubriand fellowship as well as information on University endowment programs among other opportunities.

▪ The Camargo Foundation <http://www.camargofoundation.org/>

▪ Located in Cassis, France. An interdisciplinary and multicultural residential center for scholars pursuing studies in the humanities, arts and social sciences related to French and francophone cultures. It provides a stipend for study for its students.

▪ The ERCIM Alain Bensoussan Fellowship Programme <https://fellowship.ercim.eu/>

For those holding a PhD wishing to research in the field of Mathematics or Information Technology.